

FINANCIAL

THE FIRST-BRIDGEPORT NATIONAL BANK

OF BRIDGEPORT, CONN.

RESULT OF A DEFINITE PRINCIPLE

When this bank was established in 1806 its management realized that its growth would depend largely upon the definite principle of adhering to safe banking methods. That this principle has been closely adhered to is evidenced by the fact that this bank is now the largest, as well as the oldest, financial institution in Bridgeport.

OFFICERS: Charles G. Sanford, President; F. N. Benham, Vice President; O. H. Brothwell, Cashier; H. C. Woodworth, Asst. Cashier

NOTICE

WESTPORT

For forty-four years we have been conducting business at the same old location, corner of Main and John Streets, Bridgeport, Conn. and our Private Bank has been established there continuously. We have received and paid out on demand without notice millions of dollars of money deposited with us and we continue to receive money subject to depositor's check at sight, on which we allow three per cent. per annum, credited to each account monthly. We solicit the accounts of individuals, business men, firms and corporations, and all who want a bank account where they can deposit money, checks or drafts, and leave it for one day, one week, one month or one year, and draw interest on it for any time it is left with us. We give to the business our careful personal attention as the oldest firm of private bankers in this state.

SAFETY OF CAPITAL

Is the first but not the only thing to consider in making an investment. The rate of earnings is important, too. We have paid our depositors regular semi-annual dividends for 51 years. Our business is under the supervision of the Bank Commissioners for Connecticut. Funds in our care are secured by selected mortgages on Bridgeport and suburban real estate, and on securities specified by law. Deposit any time; interest begins first of each month and dividends are payable January 1st and July 1st.

PRICE OF MILK TO MILKMEN THREE AND THREE-QUARTERS CENTS A QUART THIS SUMMER

The Crescent Milk Association, an organization of farmers in the towns of Easton, Monroe, Trumbull, Redding, Bethel, Greenfield Hill and Newtown, has fixed the price of milk to the distributors this summer as three and three-quarters cents per quart.

About 50 representatives of the branches of the association were present at a meeting held Saturday in the Baptist hall, Easton, and settled upon the rate above stated. The old officers of the association were re-elected as follows: President, J. Arthur Sherwood, Easton; vice president, Charles Nichols, Stepany; secretary, E. D. Gillette, Easton; treasurer, Philo Platt, Newtown.

STRATFORD

There is great activity today in the local wigwam of the Red Men, for the Great Inchoonah from Texas is expected to arrive in the bordering city this evening, and the Indians will rush over to meet him. The Okanucks, the Ansanawases, the Hammonasettes, the Waquahages, the Mat-tabessetts, and other tribes will be out in full force, and the Great Senior and Little Senior Sagamores and Sachems, as well as the Warriors will give the glad hand to the Great Inchoonah. It will be a great event for our local Red Men, many of whom never saw a Great Inchoonah.

In about two weeks from now Fire Chief Judson thinks he will have in commission the auto-chemical ordered by the town.

There was a special musical service at the Methodist church last night, in which the orchestra of the High School took part. Miss Catherine Richards also sang solo parts. Some of the pieces were as follows: "The Hymn of the Evening," "The Better Land," "Hark, Hark, My Soul," "The Lord is My Light," and "Hear My Prayer."

Next Sunday the monthly musical service of Christ church will be held, when the cantata of "Penitence, Pardon and Peace" will be sung.

Sometime in the future the Senior class of the High School proposes to present a play before the public.

Before anybody was up, a day or two ago, John L. Porter, Alfred Stacey and Albert Anderson rolled out of bed and went clammung, going to Milford bar, and coming back with a bushel each of the juicy bivalves. Many more clams were seen lying about in the vicinity.

Somebody in town is said to have a remarkable watch. Every time it runs down it winds itself up. Fact I assure you.

There was considerable alarm in town on Friday night, when the "town building was ablaze from top to bottom," Chief Judson, who lives close by, surveyed the remarkable phenomenon, and concluded somebody was making light of the evening's entertainments.

Something like 70 people attended the St. Patrick's celebration of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, at their headquarters, when a large number of visitors were present from the adjoining towns. Addresses were made by T. J. Murphy, H. M. Murray and L. J. McCarthy. There was music by Dolan's orchestra, and songs by T. Ryan, and Messrs. Callahan and Ahern.

Fred A. Bilton, who once lived in town, is ill at his home in Calgary, Alberta, Canada.

Chester Donaldson is rapidly recovering from his late attack which threatened stomach troubles.

Arthur Derby of this town is at the scene of war in Mexico.

It is reported that when the Housatonic lodge of Derby visited our own Oronoque, they had a "big" time. Such is the usual order of events when one lodge visits another. There is nothing like hospitality.

Announcement is made that Deacon Haven's recent entertainment of the famous Bionstra class was of the order of St. Patrick. Year by year the patron saint of Ireland grows more and more popular.

A surprise party has been given to Ernest H. Reed of Huntington road, carried out on St. Patrick's lines. A few of those present were the following gentlemen with their wives: Lewis Polley, Frank Totams, John Viger, Edward and Sidney Colburn, Morris Curtis, Charles Gormley and Howard Franklin.

Some of the guests were from Bridgeport.

The mother of Capt. Moses Hart of Elm street, who lives in New Canaan, has just reached her 100th birthday.

Friday, Capt. Hart went over to congratulate his venerable parent. It is said she can see better than some of the young folks in town, and can remember more than the oldest inhabitant. She would make a valuable reporter, having such a fund of information. The war of 1812 was raging when she was a very little girl. Among the presents she received were 20 $5 gold pieces.

Our own Housatonic Grange recently paid a friendly and fraternal visit to the Indian River Grange which is situated in Milford. The supper was to the grangers' taste and the copy book says, was "done full justice to."

Addresses were made by J. Arthur Sherwood, H. C. Miles, F. M. Platt and J. Henry Platt.

The dance of the Fortune Hunters will take place at the Masonic Temple in Bridgeport, but it will be attended by many anti-annexationists from this town. The date is April 19, which is almost a month in the future.

Echoes are still being heard in town from the great women's jubilee meeting recently held in New Haven. For full particulars see the N. H. papers. Only think of it--1,500 women sat down to dinner, and all the speakers were women.

Constable Fred Palmer has recently been sick. He hustled wonderfully at the time of the great jail outbreak.

A Certain Man in This Town Needs Watching : : :

Is he your husband, your brother, or your son? We have noticed him gazing longingly at the good watches in our window as he thought of the poor time piece in his pocket.

HIS BIRTHDAY would be made so happy if it brought him the good watch that he deserves and "love will find the way," for the cost will not break you.
